

As the current biomedical science student representative, I want to push myself further and...

Create awareness within the university that we offer science, technology & health based courses

Showcase the ever expanding school

Ensure the school becomes more valued within the University to mirror the importance of such subjects in life.

Jane Nesworthy

Chair of Science, Technology & Health